

Golden opportunity...

Alas Legal and Executive Recruitment has proudly partnered with Ireland's leading specialist professional recruitment consultancy in sourcing the highest calibre legal professionals locally, based in South Africa. If you are serious about a career and lifestyle move to join Ireland's leading firms, please continue reading:

You are the ideal candidate if you meet the following requirements~

- Must currently be working at one of the reputable Big Six law firms
- Legally trained and qualified with between 2 – 6 years PQE
- Ideally completed QLTT and admitted Solicitor or those who are in the process of doing so. This, however, is not a deal breaker and can be done at a later stage.
- Experience gained within the following practice areas – Corporate M&A, Banking and Financial services including structured finance, capital markets, aviation / asset finance.
- Ideally eligible to work in the country - European native but for the right person Visas could be arranged. European descent is preferred.
- Willing and eager to work in Dublin, Ireland!

Salaries will be competitive and market related.

Send your application to legal@alaspersonnel.co.za with subject line: Send me to Ireland!

where the grass is greener...